

Mother Theresa

What impressed me about Mother Theresa?

There are many things that impressed me about her is that she always went to help the sick, the poor, the homeless etc. no matter how hard it was to help she always tried her best to help those who need it. Mother Theresa was a woman who never gave up in helping others, she kept on praying every day to God and listened to his words.

How is Mother Theresa a witness?

Mother Theresa is a witness because she witnessed all the bad things happening to other people around the world. She witnessed bad things happening to the people around her and the world.

What difference has Mother Theresa's courage and witness made to others?

It made a difference because after she witnessed all of the bad things, she wanted to change them and help the ones suffering and treated badly. It helped them slowly recover and showed others that nothing is impossible, and you should always help those suffering.

What do I think gives Mother Theresa her courage?

I think God helps and gives Mother Theresa courage because she prayed every day and done every good, she was told; I also think this because she was there for others. I also think she got her courage from all the people who helped and supported her.
