

School in the past

Can you be a history detective? We would like you to find out about school in the past. What was it like and how did it differ from school today? Think about someone from a different generation, for example your grandparents or an older relative that you could ask some questions.

Write 3 questions about different aspects of school in the past. Remember each question should begin with a capital letter and end with a ?

1.....

.....

2.....

.....

3.....

.....