

RE 1

L.O 1 understand the reasons for certain actions of Christians

Good News

Those who are led by God's Spirit are God's children. For the Spirit that God has given you does not make you slaves and cause you to be afraid; instead, the Spirit makes you God's children, and by the Spirit's power we cry out to God, Father! My Father!

God's Spirit joins himself to our spirits to declare that we are God's children. Since we are his children, we will possess the blessings he keeps for his people, and we will also possess with Christ what God has kept for him; for if we share Christ's suffering, we will also share his glory.

Some Key Questions

Some Key Activities

-  What does Paul call the Christians of Rome. How would you feel if he called you this?
-  What message of courage does Paul give to the Christians living in Rome?
-  How do you think the Christians in Rome felt when they heard this letter?
-  How do you think they felt about themselves when they read it?

Your work

Imagine you were in Rome at the time of Paul's letter. Write an account (At least 1 paragraph) of what you thought and felt when you heard this part of Paul's letter. How do you think this is going to affect your life?

* L.O I can demonstrate receiving the ‘fruits of the spirit’

*The first friends of Jesus used their new energy given through the Holy Spirit to spread the good news of God's love for everyone. The effects of the coming of the Holy Spirit and the change and transformation the Spirit makes are called the 'fruits of the Spirit', because it is what grows in your heart through the power of the Holy Spirit.

What I say is this:

Let the Spirit direct your lives, your selfish self is the opposite of what the Holy Spirit wants.

The Spirit produces
love,
joy,
peace,
patience,
kindness,
goodness,
faithfulness,
humility,
and self-control.
