

Music- Summer 1

{ Dancing in the Street
Step 3

Listen and Appraise - I Can't Help Myself (Sugar Pie, Honey Bunch) by The Four Tops

How does this song make you feel?

Does this song tell a story?

What does the song make you think of?

How old is this piece of music?

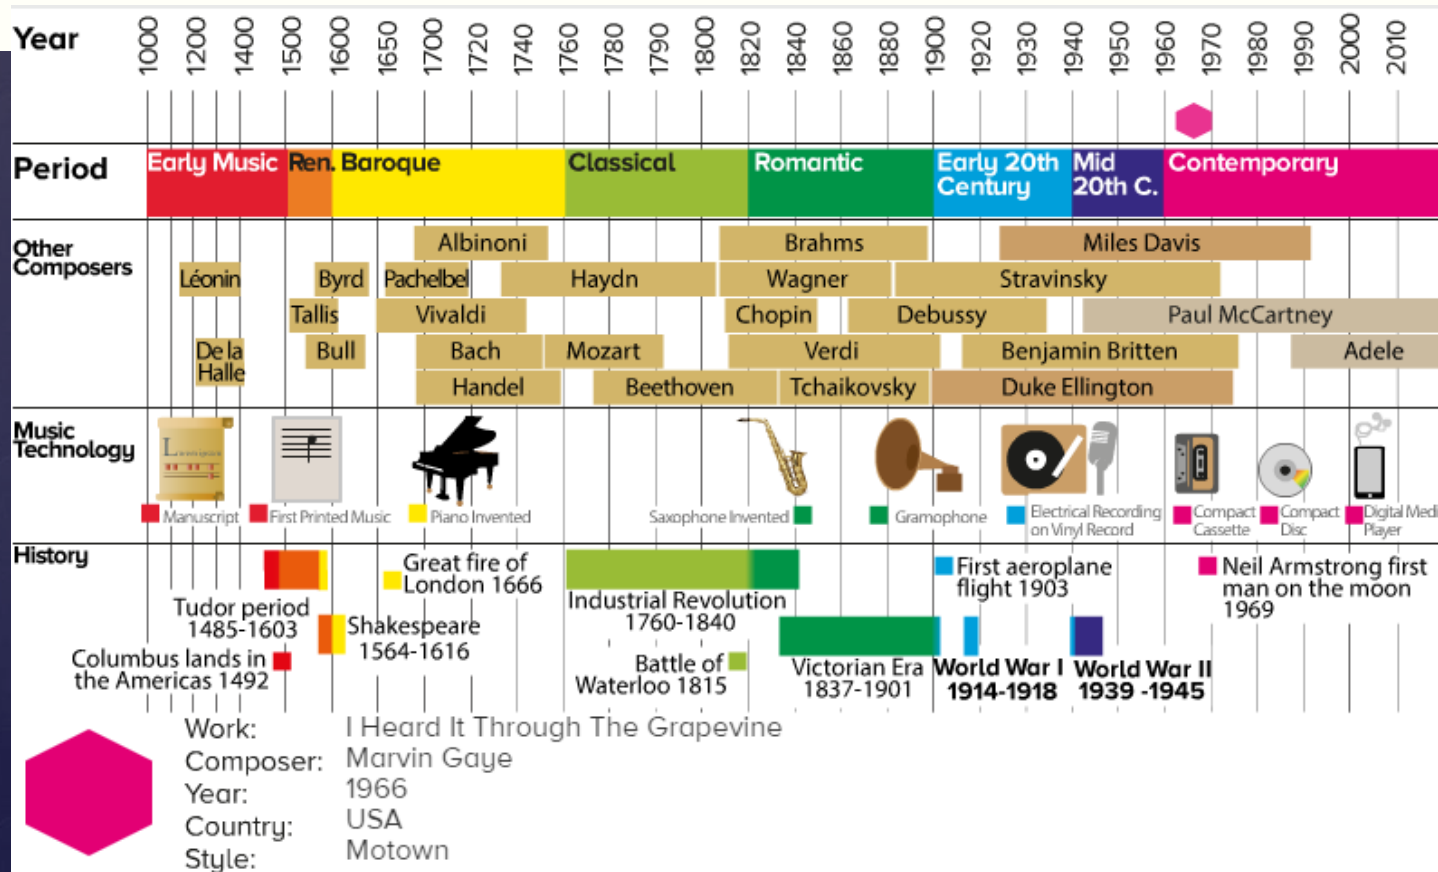

Think about these questions while you listen to the music, and try and find and move to the pulse. Click the play button below to start the music.

I Heard it through the Grapevine

Fast Facts

I Heard It Through The Grapevine by Marvin Gaye

I Heard It Through The Grapevine written by Norman Whitfield and Barrett Strong for Motown Records in 1966. The first recording of the song was released by Gladys Knight & The Pips in September 1967; it went to number two in the charts. Smokey Robinson & the Miracles included their version on their 1968 album, Special Occasion. The Marvin Gaye version was placed on his 1968 album In The Groove, where it gained the attention of radio DJs, and the Motown label agreed to its release as a single in October 1968. This song was, for a time, the biggest hit single on the Motown label (Tamla). Marvin Gaye's recording has since become an acclaimed Soul classic, and in 2004, it was placed on the list of The 500 Greatest Songs of All Time. In addition to being released several times by Motown artists, the song has been recorded by a range of musicians and used on TV.

& Let's learn more

Dancing in the Street