

Personification Poem

Personification is when you give a non-living object human characteristics (e.g. the leaves of the tree waved in the wind or lightning danced across the sky).

Pick any object to write your personification poem about and complete the sentences. (e.g. I am a writing pencil. I wish I could write in colour or even write in the air).

I am a

I am able to

I am happy when

I am sad when

I wish I could

I would like to tell my owner
