

Jack Writing Week 3

Jack power

The stranded island

Bob who was a 54 year old cleaner in a very big office had worked very hard this year so he decided to treat himself and his friends to a cruise to treasure island. The trip was in a week so he started packing his stuff. He packed crisps and sandwiches for everyone, he also packed a paper pad and pen to write a diary, he already started writing 'my trip is in a week and i cant wait, ill write again soon...'

A week later

Bob went and got on a ship ready to go, "sandwich anyone?" bob said, all of his friends said "yes please" as the boat started moving bobs friend had fishing rods so they all decided to fish. Bob was the first to catch so he put the fish in the container filled with water and kept it in his bag. After another two hours of fishing bob and rob played chess bob lost they played again and bob won before they knew it it was night time already they all went to their rooms they went to sleep they had breakfast and was at the island

Bob was at the island they split up to try find treasure and only had an hour so they started looking bob thought he found treasure but it was just a bottle but still took it he needed a toilet so he went near a tree and then he kept looking after the hour bob came back and saw he got left behind but he did find treasure but it was locked. Bob looked out at sea and could see a boat in the distance "HELP HELP!" Cried bob but no one could hear him. He was stuck. However he remembered he found a bottle and packed paper with a pen so he wrote "I'm stuck on an island and i need to get off, i have a family to see and food for a week and if i don't get found before then i will have to find food and water myself". After bob wrote the letter and put it in the bottle he threw the bottle into the ocean, then bob went for shelter under a tree because it was very hot out. bob gets a sandwich out of his bag and he eats it, the sun starts to set so Bob goes to get wood to make a fire he comes back with a lot of wood then he really wished he brung marshmallows he gets really warm from the fire but he needs a blanket to sleep with so he climbs a tree and pulls off a huge leaf then he goes to sleep. Then next morning he wakes up and remembers that he has a fish left in his bag so he decides to cook it on the fire then eat it. Meanwhile in England a young boy playing at the beach finds Bobs letter in the bottle. Instantly the boy runs and gives the letter to his mum. His mum calls the police so they send a rescue helicopter to help bob get off the island the rescue Helicopter arrived at the island and saved bob.

When Bob got home he put the chest on the side and broke the lock with a shovel and inside lay lots and lots of shiny gold.

The End